A Christmas Suggestion . . .

For Your Friends Who Would Be Worldly Wise

Give them CURRENT HISTORY

The authoritative accounts of diplomatic, economic and political developments in the world have long provided CURRENT HISTORY readers with the background for current affairs. Here is an opportunity for you to share with your friends this knowledge of world events. They, too, will be able to see history as it unfolds—month by month in articles by well known contributing editors—day by day in an extensive chronology.

CURRENT HISTORY, founded in 1914 by The New York Times, carries all the basic material needed for an understanding of national and international affairs. Besides the articles and the chronology, CURRENT HISTORY will collect and reprint for your friends as well as for you, vital speeches, treaties, declarations of world importance—documents which are difficult to follow in the newspapers.
